SAMUEL AYERS,

FORMERLY OF DANVILLE, KENTUCKY.

WATCH MAKER,

Successor to B. F. Mack, Main Street, Frankfort, Ky., continues the watch repairing business at the old stand. By promptness and careful work he hopes to merit the patronage of those who desire to have their watches repaired without damage being done them. Surveyors' compasses repaired and other instruments requiring delicate and accurate adjustment.

In retiring from business in Frankfort I take pleasure in expressing my entire confidence in Mr. S. Ayers, and from my long acquaintance with him as a workman, do not hesitate to commend him as every way capable of meeting the expectation of my former patrons.

State News.

Mr. D. T. Wells, of Nelson county, has a steer that weighs 3,000 pounds, for which he refused $800.

One of the patients in the Western Lunatic Asylum at Hopkinsville died with small-pox last week.

At a school exhibition in Metcalfe county, last week, a row occurred, and twelve or fifteen shots were fired into the crowd promiscuously by those engaged in the fight. One man was shot through the heart and killed instantly, another was shot in the abdomen and will die, while a number of others and a young lady were slightly wounded.

George Freeman, night policeman, was killed in Versailles Saturday night by Ollie and Pres. Brown. The parties were drinking and making a fuss when Freeman told them to keep quiet or he would arrest them. They began cursing and abusing him and finally shot him through the left breast. He lived only a few moments after. They bore him an old grudge for arresting a brother of theirs. The Browns are in jail.

Point Pleasant.

Everyone who has the plants are busy setting out tobacco.

Mrs. Dora Shuck, of South Frankfort, visited her aunt, Mrs. R. J. Shannon, last week.

Mr. George Fincel, who has been confined to his room for some three months, is now able to sit up and walk around.

Mr. B. W. Rogers, of North Benson, Shelby county, was visiting Mr. Simon Hopper, and they took a fishing tour last week.

Mrs. J. T. Waters, Mrs. James Goin, and Mrs. Flinn, of Frankfort, were the guests of Mrs. Catharine Arnold the first of the week.

Mr. J. R. Harrod, wife and daughters, Misses Jennie and Pearl, of Shelby county, were visiting Mr. R. J. Shannon and wife the first of the week.

Miss Susie Owens has a bone-fellow on her finger, which is very painful. She had to go to town to consult a doctor and have the finger split. She is improving at present.

Mrs. James Russell's favorite hen (common breed of chickens) is doing well with her seventy-five chickens. They are a lovely sight and are all thrifty and growing fast.

Dave Moore says that was not his horse; it was one he was leading out for Bob Owens. He told Dr. when you go to town that you do not fall and burst another hole in the pavement.

Mr. James Russell sold a yearling calf this week to Mr. Wm. Moore for twenty-five dollars. Bill says he got the calf very cheap. Mr. Russell also bought one from Mr. W. B. Witt for fifteen dollars.

Two young gents from the Point went last Sunday to see their sweethearts. They kept late hours that night and the consequence was, that when they got home they were locked out, and having no night key they were compelled to remain in the school house the balance of the night on hard benches. Boys, stay all night next time or come home sooner.

Some mischievous boys went to Mr. Lanny Flinn's Tuesday night and called for one James Cook, a hand that was at work there, and told him that they had come for the purpose of whipping him. They did not, however, but threatened him and went off. Mr. Cook knew who they were and intends to have them arrested. The boys are trying to compromise with Cook and get him to drop the matter. Such things should not be countenanced.

HAWK EYE.

Flat Creek.

Dr. Birchot has returned from a visit to Cincinnati.

Squire Tracy has purchased a buggy for comfortable riding.

Dr. Edlings is talking about locating at Mr. J. L. Greenwell's.

It is expected that Mr. James Harrod will teach the Bald Knob school next winter. There will be no courting going on in the school house then.

Messrs. James Roberts, Lewis Lee, and others were down at Steamboat Hollow last Sunday, gathering up bones. Look out, Rusty Cuss, there is opposition now.

Mr. J. B. Tracy is offering fifty cents for fish six inches long caught above the Sulphur Lick Spring. There is one boy that has complied with the conditions and gotten his money.

Trip.

There will be services at the Mission Chapel in Taylorton, to-morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Mr. John T. Buckley is the agent in this city for the sale of Fisher, Leaf & Co.'s iron mantels, and he is selling them at Louisville prices.

A farmer in this county owns a bee gum, containing a colony of bees, from which one swarm came out on Friday of last week, another on Saturday, still another on Sunday, and on Monday two swarms came out. He succeeded in capturing all five of them and the young swarms are now busily engaged in setting their new homes in order, while those that remain in the old gum are pursuing the even tenor of their way.

One day last week a gentleman living on the Flat Creek pike thought he had discovered a bee tree, and summoned the neighbors to go with him to cut it. Quite a large party were on hand at the appointed time and proceeded to the tree, which was a large elm standing on the side of the pike, and busied up with the hope of a rich harvest of wild honey, they were soon making the chips fly. The day was very warm, but they worked away taking the precaution, as they thought, to cut so the tree would fall away from the pike. After an hour or so of hard labor the tree fell—not as they wanted it, but square across the pike—completely blocking up the road, and to make matters worse, when they came to look for the honey not a particle was to be found; the insects they thought were bees flying about the top of the tree were nothing more than gnats. The sun was beaming down upon them, but that tree had to be gotten out of the pike, and there was no help for it but to chop it up, so they had the pleasure of putting in the balance of the day in moving it. It is said there is not a man in that party who will eat honey now for pay.

Republican Convention.

At a meeting of the Republican County Committee, held in the city of Frankfort, on Monday, June 4th, it was ordered that the Republicans of Franklin county be requested to meet in mass Convention at the Court House in the city of Frankfort on Monday, July 2d, 1883, at 2 o'clock, p. m., for the purpose of nominating candidates for the offices of Representative and Sheriff of Franklin county.

By order of the Committee.

Miss Nannie Terrell, we are sorry to say, is no better.

The people in this section think the Roundabout is one of the best little papers published.

Rev. James Graves will preach at Eden School House on the second Sunday afternoon in July, at 4 o'clock.

Mr. W. B. Tracy has been repairing his dwelling house lately. He now has a nice house and buggy and if he only had a new pike he would be happy.

Some thief stole a calf filled with honey from one of Mr. W. L. Lee's hives Tuesday night. He says he would be glad if the thief would return the calf.

We have several old widowers around here who are anxious to marry, and if the girls will only give them half a chance we will have a wedding or two in a short time.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

Entered at the post-office at Frankfort, Kentucky as second class mail matter.

GEORGE A. LEWIS,
Editor and Publisher.

FRANKFORT, JUNE 23, 1883.

Please bear in mind that the blue pencil mark X on your paper indicates that the time for which you have paid has expired and you are requested to call around and settle.

Go to Messrs. Morris-Staines Co. for dry building material.

Tom Fehan was adjudged a lunatic in the Circuit Court Wednesday.

Col. Jake Corbett has withdrawn from the race for the Legislature in his native county of Ballant.

The Carlisle Distillery of the E. H. Taylor, Jr., Co. will stop operations for the season on the 30th.

In chopping with a hatchet Saturday, Miss Minnie Joyce accidentally cut the end of her left forefinger off.

The 29th of this month is the last day for filing suits in the Quarterly Court, which meets on the 9th of July.

Col. Robt. W. Scott, on account of his age and declining health, wants to sell his elegant farm in this county.

EASIEST TO CLEAN.—Nothing to do but to remove the dasher and seal out the bucket of the Victor Churn. Buckley sells it.

Mr. H. L. Watkins wanted to sell one of the most conveniently located cottage homes on the South Side. It can be bought at a bargain. Read his advertisement.

Mr. John W. Johnson, the gentlemanly and accommodating South Side grocer, and Miss Sallie Abbott will be married at the Baptist Church Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock.

The contract for the building of the new Opera House was signed Saturday night, and Messrs. Haly Brothers began clearing away the rubbish Monday morning for the foundation.

An excursion party of young people from Eminence will come up to this city, in a few days, and go down to Lockport on a fishing frolic, on board one of the boats now running between this city and Louisville.

Mr. John T. Buckley has sold fifteen or twenty of the Victor Churns, with the understanding that if they did not give perfect satisfaction they were to be returned, but not one of them has been brought back to him.

A festival for the benefit of Buck Run Baptist Church was held at the residence of Mrs. Wm. Featherstone, at the Forks of Elkhorn, Wednesday evening, which was largely attended, a very pleasant affair and a success financially.

Mr. F. B. Staines, of this city, shaves with a razor which was brought from Baltimore to Louisville by one of the early settlers of this State at a time when the latter city had but three houses in it. The old pioneer made the entire trip on foot and carried the razor, together with another exactly like it, in a case in his pocket. It is splendid metal, and holds its edge so well that it does not require honing more than once in nine years.

There will be a grand encampment of all the militia of the State held near this city, beginning on the 31st of August, and continuing until the 6th of September. The old base ball lot of Mrs. Mary L. Todd, in Belle Point, has been selected as the camp ground, and arrangements are being made to make it a grand success. The battalions that are here at that time will participate in the inauguration ceremonies of the new Governor.

Mr. Wm. Lee, who resides on Flat Creek in this county, owns a cow that gave birth to three calves on Sunday night, two males and one female. When found Monday morning the female was dead but the other two were as lively as crickets. This makes seven calves she has had in the last two years, having raised twins twice in that time. The three calves were weighed and their respective weights were 41, 42 and 52 pounds. It would not take many cows of this kind to supply the deficiency in the number of beef cattle complained of by the butchers in this section.

J. H. Wade, No. 49 Water st., Louisville says: "Brown's Iron Bitters entirely cured me of dyspepsia."

Miss Nannie Browder entertained her classmates Tuesday night, it being her birthday.

A large lot of dry scantlin and joints, all sizes and lengths, for sale by Morris-Staines Co. at Frankfort prices.

Mr. Dennis J. Haly, oldest son of Mr. John Haly, died in this city Tuesday morning with pneumonia, after a week's illness.

The session of the City School closed yesterday. The examination of applicants for the positions of teacher in the school will begin Monday.

Miss Annie Crutcher gave an entertainment at the residence of her parents in Belle Point, Tuesday night, in honor of Miss Mamie Sappington, of Madison, Indiana.

The L. & N. Railroad will sell excursion tickets between all stations on its road on the 3d and 4th of July, good to return up to midnight on the 5th of the same month. Tickets will be sold only to stations from which you can return within the specified limit.

Mr. Frank G. Montgomery was tried in the Circuit Court Tuesday on the charge of shooting Mr. C. E. Taylor, of the Western Union Telegraph office, on the fourth of December, and was acquitted, the jury being out only a few minutes. The case was tried before Judge G. C. Drane, as special judge.

Call and see the samples of iron mantles at Buckley's before purchasing elsewhere.

Dr. U. V. Williams has purchased of Mrs. Jane Page two lots, fronting on Cross street one hundred feet, and running back two hundred (part of the old Church property) for twelve dollars per foot front. That part of the city is being rapidly built up, and the Doctor will soon have handsome dwellings upon these lots.

A party of gentlemen are arranging for an excursion and basket picnic down the river to Lockport on July 4. Only a limited number will be taken, and all arrangements for a pleasant time perfected. Persons desiring to avail themselves of this trip will make application to Mr. Chas. S. Green, Geo. L. Payne, Judge W. L. Jett or John W. Payne, as the party will be made up before that day.

The body of a drowned man was found floating in the river, just above the railroad bridge, at the "whirling rocks," Tuesday afternoon. It proved to be a German tramp, who arrived in this city Sunday on his way from Mississippi. He was seen sitting on the wall just below the road that leads up Buttiner's hill Sunday afternoon, his coat and shoes were found on the river bank Monday, and he was tracked down to a raft of logs that were lying in the water just below. The coroner's jury returned a verdict of accidental drowning.

Catarrh is the seed of Consumption, and unless taken in time is a very dangerous disease. Hall's Catarrh Cure never fails to cure. Price 75 cents. Sold by Joseph LeCompte.

The Pistol.

An unfortunate shooting affair occurred at the saw-mill of Mr. J. M. Wakefield about six o'clock Monday morning. When Mr. Merritt Ways, the yard-master at the mill, arrived there he found Mr. John W. Rupe, former Deputy City Marshal and ex-policeman, but now keeper of the Railroad Bridge, standing in the yard, who asked him if Mr. Wakefield had come in yet, to which Mr. Ways replied that he had not. Mr. Rupe then asked at what time he would arrive and on Mr. Ways replying that he did not know, Rupe remarked "you have wronged me," drew a pistol and commenced firing at Ways, who attempted to get out of the way of the bullets, but was struck in the back, just below the right shoulder blade, by one of them, which glanced around and came out near the right breast, inflicting a dangerous flesh wound. Rupe fired four times, but fortunately only one shot took effect. He then coolly walked up to the Court House, gave himself up, and was placed in charge of Jailor Sheehan. The only reason he gave for his action was that Ways had insulted his wife, but this Mrs. Rupe says is not the case, as Mr. Ways has always treated her politely and has been a good friend of Mr. Rupe's; that she has noticed indications of lunacy in the actions of her husband of late, and had locked up his pistols to prevent his getting at them, and thinks he must have borrowed the one he used Monday.

A writ of lunacy was issued against Rupe Tuesday, and he had a trial Thursday afternoon, which resulted in a hung jury.

Mr. Ways has been suffering a great deal from his wound, but is doing as well as possible under the circumstances.

Mr. John E. Kirtley has been appointed agent of the steamer Fannie Freese in this city, in place of Mr. Z. T. Thomasson, retired.

The supper given by the ladies of the Baptist Church at the Court House Thursday night was very well attended, and the food and other delicacies sold rapidly. The receipts amounted to about $160.
